New virus confirmed, tries to outsmart anti-virus software

Information Systems Department (ISD), Naval Station, Rota has confirmed a new SMTP computer virus that tries to evade anti-virus software.

The worm virus, known as W32.magistr.24876@mm, I-worm.Magistr, or PE_MAGISTR.A, attacks the computer's hard drive by overwriting files and distributing Word documents found on the system at random. It then

The DGF Scholarship fund this year is not going as well as last year, with only $250 raised during the past ten months.

SGLI increases to $250,000

Servicemember's Group Life Insurance will automatically increase to $250,000, April 1. The increase marks a $50,000 rise from the previous SGLI coverage.

Members who currently have the maximum coverage amount of $200,000, pay $16 per month. When the coverage is increased to $250,000, members will pay $20 a month. However, the premium will automatically increase to $20 a month for the new maximum coverage.

In April, members will have the choice to reduce or terminate the coverage. After April, funds detached from pay for coverage will not be reimbursed.

"During this period, members can come in and fill out an SGLI election form to actually reduce the coverage or to not have any coverage at all. If they do this in the month of April, they could get back the money that was taken from their pay for the coverage. It is imperative they act fast if personnel intend to do that," said DKC (SW) Jose Acosta, military

The petitions were presented by the School Advisory Committee at a meeting Wednesday, and will go up the DoDEA chain of command to the director.

Navy chaplains, decision making

During a chaplain's conference last week, the Deputy Chief of Chaplains encouraged the 40 in attendance to step up their roles as advisors to their commanding officers.

Commanding officers usually have their lawyer and their PAO around to discuss options, said Rear Adm. Lou Iasiello, Deputy Chief of Chaplains. But, chaplains can also provide valuable guidance, he said.

"The PAO can tell you if you do such and such, you will be on the front page [of the newspaper], and the lawyer can tell you the possible legal ramifications," said Iasiello. "A chaplain can provide information concerning ethnicity, culture, and eco-

Volunteers needed for Tiger Day

The selection board for E-9 recently convened and we were very fortunate here in Rota to have two of our very own selected for advancement to Master Chief. Congratulations go out to MACS (SW) Francisco Garcia from the Security Department and SKCS (SW) Maria Sanchez from Supply. Capt. Noble frocked them both to Master Chief on the 16th of March. Congratulations are also in order for CECS (SCW) Timothy Bennett, who was selected for Warrant Officer and DKC (SW/AW) Jose Acosta from PSD who was selected for Ensign under the LDO program. They will be leaving us to attend Officer Indoctrination School in the next few months. Well done to all of them, and everyone else who was advanced. The selection board for E-8 is currently in session; I wish all candidates the best of luck.

This week also ended the last series of Navy wide advancement examinations for E-4 through E-6 and many of our Sailors participated. The advancement numbers continue to improve every cycle. I look forward to receiving the results and hope a great number of you advance.

We recently concluded "Operation Golden Foxtail" which was a base wide cleanup effort to ensure the base was cleaned of all debris which resulted from the high winds and heavy rainfall we have been experiencing lately. I would like to thank everyone who participated, including tenant commands for their support in this endeavor. It is through combined efforts like this that Rota continues to be the "premier base" in the Mediterranean.

While I am focused on support from the community, I want to touch on Tiger Day, which is currently scheduled for April 6. With the upcoming strike of Local Labor Personnel, which is scheduled for the week of April 2-7, we may experience a shortage of manpower to effectively conduct all the work required for Tiger Day.

With this in mind, there is a great need for volunteers to assist with tent set-up, making magnets, spray-painting the tow way and cleaning up afterwards. If you are interested in helping to make Tiger Day successful for our children and want to volunteer your efforts, please contact Candace Myer or Michelle Butlers at ext. 3232. I would greatly appreciate it.

DoD task force seeks better domestic violence reports

In a report to Defense Secretary Donald H. Rumsfeld, the DoD Task Force on Domestic Violence made 59 recommendations to improve the military's response to domestic violence.

The report filed by the 24-member panel is based on the first year of a congressionally mandated, three-year review called for in the fiscal 2000 Defense Authorization Act. The report stresses the importance of preventing domestic violence, protecting victims and holding offenders accountable.

LETTERS

The DGF PTSA would like to give another big thanks to Benny Carollo for the fantastic job he did putting together our Taco Dinner for the PTSA meeting, held Feb. 1. Without his support and creativity, the meeting would not have been such a success. His unselfish dedication is an inspiration to us all. We would also like to thank the following for their time and efforts: Shane Steece; George Vest; Michael Powell; Girl Scout Troop 14, for their baby sitting services; Boy Scout Troop 73, for setting up and serving; and Shawtel Powell, for serving. For donations and prizes we owe our gratitude to: Navy Exchange Stores; American Greetings; Lisa Coe; Jan Calzini; and the DGF Book Fair Committee. We would also like to congratulate Jim Worcester for winning the adult spelling bee held at the meeting.

NCLC Students

The Navy College Learning Center would like to recognize the following students who earned Student of the Month honors for the months of January and February.

Civilian Carmen Patricia Simmons totaled 35 hours and 48 minutes of study time in January making her the clear winner for the month. Ms. Simmons has been using the center regularly since June 2000. During the past few months she has completed FASTRACK Language Arts, Reading and Writing in the Workplace. She is currently working her way through the other modules of the Work Skills program. Ms. Simmons has a Master's Degree in Family Sciences from Panama and is using the center to improve her English skills.

Family Member Nancy Donaldson won the Student of the Month contest in February. Her total study time came to an amazing 47 hours and 8 minutes. Nancy has been a student at the NCLC only since January 2001 and has been working diligently to finish FASTRACK Language Arts. With her determination and dedication, we know she will be very successful and complete many courses at the NCLC.

Rota proactive in tobacco cessation

PH1(AW) Ron Heppner
Rota Coastline

Naval Hospital Health Promotions has seen an increase in commands taking advantage of proactive measures designed to help Sailors kick the tobacco habit.

Since the Navy's last semi-annual Physical Readiness Test (PRT) screening, there has been an increase of Sailors who want to become tobacco free, said Betty Murphy, Naval Hospital Health Promotions coordinator. Members who checked "yes" on the tobacco usage block of the last semi-annual form were required to receive counseling from the hospital, she said. During the counseling, members were informed of their options and Health Promotions followed up with General Military Training (GMT) at the commands, she said.

This counseling and training prompted Sailors at two commands, Naval Computer and Telecommunications Area Master Station, Europe Central Detachment, Spain (NCTAMS), and Naval Media Center Broadcast Detachment, Rota (NMC), to initiate tobacco cessation counseling sessions within their commands, in addition to regularly scheduled tobacco cessation sessions at the hospital, she said.

NMC is currently undergoing a drastic paradigm shift. Tobacco-free command members are increasing from about 50 percent tobacco-free members to nearly 100 percent tobacco-free, said YNC (AW) Matt Connelly, NMC administrative officer.

"Bringing the sessions to our building is really convenient and saves time because we don't have to go to the hospital," said Connelly, a 19-year smoker. "It is also helpful having the support network of others with the same goal." The drug, Zyban, nicotine patches, and professional counseling provided by the hospital give Rota Sailors the tools they need to kick the habit.

"We use Zyban and the patch to help tobacco users get over the hump of physical addiction," said Murphy. "The counseling sessions help to overcome the psychological addiction."

Zyban was developed from an active ingredient in the anti-depressant drug Wellbutrin. Doctors noticed that patients who were prescribed Wellbutrin lost the desire to use tobacco. Zyban was approved by the Food and Drug Administration in 1997 and the Navy began prescribing it in 1999.

To obtain Zyban or nicotine patches, authorized health care patrons must set up an appointment with Health Promotions.

Health Promotions will set up cessation classes for any group of six or more. For more information, call ext. 3350.

'Second Step' guidance program ranked 'exemplary'

A new guidance program, used by DGF Elementary School counselors, called 'Second Step' has been named the top of the class by the U.S. Department of Education.

The U.S. Department of Education's 2001 Expert Panel gave the non-profit violence prevention program its top 'exemplary' rating for program quality and educational effectiveness. The exemplary rating was awarded to nine of the 132 programs that were reviewed. The panel cited the Second Step curriculum for its "clear and appropriate goals for the intended population and setting," as well as its "relevant evidence of effectiveness based on sound evaluation."

The Second Step program was proven effective in decreasing students' violent and aggressive behavior in a 1997 study, published in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Second Step was implemented into DGF Elementary curriculum this year. Each week a guidance counselor presents a different lesson to help students learn and practice strategies for empathy, impulse control, and anger management.

ETA bombs explode in tourist cities

Car bombs blamed on ETA Basque separatists exploded in two Spanish Mediterranean tourist resorts over the weekend, killing a Catalan policeman and causing extensive damage to vehicles and buildings.

Police received warning of the first attack, in Roses, near the French border, on Saturday night, and rushed to evacuate one hundred people from a nearby hotel. The bomb exploded soon afterwards, killing Santos Santamaria Avendano, 32, who was hit by flying metal.

Hours later in the resort of Gandia in the Valencia region, police detonated a car bomb placed near the sea-front promenade, after receiving a warning. The 50kg bomb was activated by robot before dawn yesterday. The blast destroyed 20 cars and shattered windows but caused no injuries.

Politicians were shaken that ETA's Catalan operation, supposedly dismantled with much fanfare two months ago, had re-established itself so quickly and to such deadly effect.

The death at Roses brings the number of people killed to 28 since ETA ended a ceasefire in 1999. Those responsible for both bombs are suspected of launching their raids from France.

Political party petitions for beach

The Andalusian Party has petitioned Rota's city government to work to regain Admiral's Beach, located inside the Rota Naval Base.

The political party said the beach is "dirty and not used enough," was "taken unjustly and arbitrarily from the people of Rota," and if taken back from the base, would "not affect [Spain's] national security."

The Andalusian Party also said that not having the beach means that the Rospidillo Beach boardwalk cannot be extended to El Chorrillo beach and that the wire fence that separates the Rota beaches from Admiral's beach is "embarrassing, and is like having a guard with a firearm [on the beach]."

The petition is calling for Rota City Hall to request the Spanish Ministry of Defense to give Rota the beach back, and to remove the fence from the beach.

March 31.

The Toastmasters and the African-American Heritage Committee have been the only two organizations so far to give to the scholarship fund drive. Felty said he believes this is a very important fund drive that everybody should contribute to.

"Every penny goes to the children of our community. This is important because not everybody comes from a family with the resources to pay for college," Felty said. "A $500 scholarship, or a $1000 scholarship from this drive might be the ticket in getting some of these kids into college."

With six weeks left, Felty said it's time for the base to 'step up to the plate' and provide support to the fund drive.

"I challenge the community to support our children, the future of the United States," he said. "Our success is in the hands of our successors."

Commands prepare for Tiger Day

JO2 Ricky Allen
Rota Coastline

Naval Station, Rota, and its tenant commands are gearing up this year's 9th annual Tiger Day.

Tiger Day is similar to the Tiger Cruises conducted in the Fleet. The event gives kids the opportunity to get a first-hand look at different jobs in the military.

The coordinator of this year's Tiger Day activities is Candace Myer, nurse for the New Parent Support Team at Fleet and Family Support Center, Rota.

The entire day is a 'show and tell' day for base personnel, giving children insight and details on the various jobs in the military.

Tiger Day is a Naval Station, Rota function. FFSC coordinates the festivities, with base CMC consultation, Myer said.

The festivities begin at 11 a.m. with lunch at the base galley. Children can use their meal tickets to eat, while adults pay the regular galley price. The Rota train will be available on base to transport people from the galley to command displays on the Tow Way.

After the ribbon cutting at the Tow Way by Capt. Richard R. Noble, Commanding Officer, Naval Station, Rota, at 1:30 p.m., children ages 12 and under get the chance to participate in a fun run to win medals and T-Shirts.

This year, NSGA will be hosting a dunk tank, and a fiberglass bull for picture taking. They will also display the inside of their computer displays. Other commands such as VQ-2 will be supplying a shuttle back and forth to their hanger for their Open House and supplying kids with VQ-2 badges.

Other demonstrations at Tiger Day will include a Harrier demonstration, ambulances, golf carts, military working dogs, and McGruff. Kids will get target practice with machine guns with blanks, and paint balls with targets. There will also be boat displays, and a bomb robot supplied by EOD for kids to see at this year's Tiger Day.

The day-long event will not only be a learning experience for the children as they travel to and from different commands, but a chance for parents to spend quality time with their children. It will be a chance for parents in the military to get a chance to 'show off' to their kids where they work.

U.S. cut 750 troops, heavy equipment in Bosnia

The United States is reducing the number of troops and heavy equipment taking part in the NATO-led peacekeeping mission in Bosnia.

U.S. troop strength will drop from its current level of 4,400 to 3,500 by the end of April, Pentagon spokesman Rear Adm. Craig Quigley said March 15. This number includes some overlap as units rotate in and out. NATO's stabilization force currently has about 20,000 troops in Bosnia.

The cuts are the result of NATO's latest six-month force level review done in December. As a part of that process, Quigley said, U.S. defense officials informed NATO allies they would reduce excess equipment, and people to maintain and operate that equipment, that they saw as "above and beyond" its needs in carrying out its SFOR mission.

Child Citizenship Act of 2000 becomes effective

A recently enacted law affects how foreign-born children become citizens. H.R. 2883, The Child Citizenship Act of 2000, became law Feb. 27. Public Law 106-395 amends the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) to permit foreign-born children, including adopted children, to acquire citizenship automatically if they meet certain requirements.

On Feb. 27, certain foreign-born children, including adopted children currently residing permanently in the United States, acquired citizenship automatically. To be eligible, a child must meet the definition of "child" for naturalization purposes under immigration law, and must also meet other requirements, including: (1) The child has at least one U.S. citizen parent (by birth or naturalization); (2) The child is under 18 years of age; (3) The child is currently residing permanently in the U.S. in the legal and physical custody of the U.S. citizen parent; (4) The child is a lawful permanent resident; and (5) An adopted child meets the requirements applicable to adopted children under immigration law.

Navy Recruiting "accelerates" new advertising campaign

The Navy has launched a new advertising campaign designed specifically to appeal to today's young men and women. The "Accelerate Your Life" campaign made its debut March 14, and marks the first time the Navy is using the Internet, radio, television and direct mail in a totally integrated manner (or effort).

New creative products will debunk myths, replace them with facts, and deliver the Navy message in cutting-edge formats. Accompanying images of the new TV ad frames and print collaterals can be downloaded at the official web site of the U.S. Navy at <http://www.navy.mil> under "What's New."

Civilian Misconduct Boards

Staff Judge Advocate's Office

One of the primary responsibilities of Commander, U.S. Naval Activities, Spain (COMNAVACTS) is to maintain good order and discipline onboard U.S. Naval Station, Rota. When a military member disrupts this good order, he or she is dealt with through the military justice system. However, currently there is no criminal system overseas for handling similar cases involving family members. Therefore, such situations may be resolved through a Civilian Misconduct Board (CMB). In short, a Civilian Misconduct Board is an administrative board consisting of the Executive Officer (President), Command Master Chief, Staff Judge Advocate, Criminal Investigator, Family Advocacy Representative, and in cases involving misconduct by a dependent child, a representative from the school.

CMBs are initiated in only the most serious cases involving family member misconduct. Past cases have included shoplifting, MWR and NEX fraud, disorderly conduct, break-ins and theft in housing, as well as damage to school and base property. When a board is initiated, the alleged offender has his/her opportunity to tell their side of the story. After the board adjourns, the Executive Officer makes a recommendation to COMNAVACTS for disposition of the case. Capt. Richard Noble, commanding officer, has wide discretion over the handling of these cases. His authority ranges from suspension of various privileges to base debartment. In some cases, he may even pursue revocation of command sponsorship. In less serious cases, COMNAVACTS may not convene a CMB, but simply issue a letter suspending a family member's access to certain base facilities.

Family member misconduct onboard Naval Station, Rota is taken seriously. Everyone should be aware that family member misconduct could seriously impact a family's status - or eventual lack of status - onboard U.S. Naval Station, Rota. This process has been put in place to protect all the families on Naval Station, Rota. Being good citizens and fostering a healthy, productive community atmosphere should be the goal of all of us.

Environmental Awareness Tip

We can do something to conserve our non-renewable oil resources. It takes seven gallons of crude oil to produce one car tire. Producing tires for U.S. vehicles requires 3.6 billion gallons of crude oil. By properly inflating our automobile tires we can save 100,000 barrels of oil per day.

TRICARE Senior Pharmacy

The Department of Defense announced that on April 1, uniformed services beneficiaries 65 years of age and older will begin receiving pharmacy benefits provided by the 2001 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). An estimated 1.4 million beneficiaries are eligible for the benefit.

The new program will limit their out-of-pocket costs and increase their access to the National Mail Order Program (NMOP), and retail pharmacies that are part of the Department of Defense (DoD) network, which include many major chain drug stores. In addition, they may use non-network retail pharmacies.

"Drug therapy, for many of our older retired servicemembers, is one of their greatest and most costly medical needs. This is a comprehensive drug benefit that makes pharmacy care accessible and affordable. This expanded benefit should contribute significantly to their quality of life," said J. Jarrett Clinton, M.D., acting assistant secretary of Defense for Health Affairs.

Beneficiaries who are 65 years of age and older will not pay enrollment fees or annual premiums for their TRICARE pharmacy benefits, but they will pay modest co-pays when they use NMOP and retail network pharmacies. In addition, beneficiaries will also be able to use non-network pharmacies, but this option will entail a slightly higher co-pay and deductible. In the past, only those beneficiaries who were eligible for Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) benefits and the Pharmacy Redesign Pilot Program (PRPP) were able to enjoy modest out-of-pocket costs through the NMOP and retail pharmacy network. The new program replaces BRAC pharmacy benefit and the Pharmacy Redesign Pilot Program.

Retired beneficiaries living overseas can use their TRICARE benefit at overseas pharmacies, but they will need to submit their pharmacy claims for reimbursement. They also will be able to utilize the NMOP, if certain requirements are met. Federal and state legal restrictions apply to the prescribing, dispensing and mailing of prescription drugs, so the NMOP can only mail to APOs and FPOs, which are part of the U.S. Postal Service. Also, the NMOP can only fill prescriptions written by providers licensed to practice in the United States.

High speed Internet?

Ernest Flores
Base Communication Officer,
Naval Station, Rota

The Base Communications Officer is negotiating with Telefonica to provide ADSL services to housing and barracks residents. What is ADSL? The technical term, known as Asymmetrical Digital Subscriber Line is a technology that converts twisted-pair telephone lines into access paths for high speed communications. ADSL can transmit more than six mega bits per second (Mbps), enough to provide Internet access and video-on-demand.

What does this technical jargon mean to me as an Internet user? An ADSL modem can be installed on an existing telephone line and provide a high-speed connection to the Internet. ADSL is a virtual connection for 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and 365 days per year. While connected, you may still use the telephone, no more tying up the line while connected in the current dial up scenario used by most customers today. For off-base customers, in some selected areas, this service is currently available; check the web site <http://www.terra.es/adsl> for more information.

What does it take to have this service? An initial installation charge, purchase and installation of the ADSL modem, and then a monthly service fee. Pricing for these services will depend on the amount of interest from base customers. Off base prices for this service will be different from the prices for use on Naval Station, Rota.

If you are interested in obtaining these services, then I would like for you to participate in a customer survey. The survey will be conducted throughout the month. All you need to do is call the operator, tell him which service you might be interested in, and give your quarter's number.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: When will the service be made available?

A: Upon receipt of all the survey participants, probably within 90 days.

Q: How much does the ADSL service cost?

A: The current off base rates that Telefonica uses are provided in the following chart. The rates for on-base customers will be lower due to special promotions, responses to the survey, and IVA free.

			Installation	Modem	Monthly Fee
Structure 1	256 Kbps Receive	128 Kbps Transmit	$105.53	$168.78	$35.97
Structure 2	512 Kbps Receive	128 Kbps Transmit	$163.63	$168.78	$77.28
Structure 3	2 Kbps Receive	300 Kbps Transmit	$304.74	$168.78	$151.23

Q: Why are we negotiating these services with Telefonica?

A: The U.S. Government has a contract for basic telephone services with Telefonica. ADSL utilizes the existing telephone cable of which all customers use from their quarters. Other companies providing this similar service contract to Telefonica for a fee, which is then passed to the customer. ADSL will be provided IVA free for on base customers.

Q: What types of modems are installed?

A: External modems are part of the original installation. Any changes to these types of modems could cause this service to not operate properly.

nomics in areas around the world."

Iasiello remembers a time during the Cuban and Haitian refugee Joint Task Force at Naval Station Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, when U.S. forces dealt with entirely different cultures. Haitians were used to extreme poverty and a brutal ruling regime. One tactic that authorities employed in Haiti when dealing with trouble makers was to place a tire over a person's arms and light the tire on fire. This left a very powerful impact with the Haitians, so when a pile of old tires appeared at the camp, the refugees began protesting. The base commander was tempted to call out the riot squad but instead opted to follow a chaplain's suggestion to simply remove the pile of tires. Within a few hours calm ensued through the camp. "Some people have very little hope, and chaplains can provide insight to the economic, social, and historical backgrounds that others endure," said Iasiello.

The new stop was incorporated to serve the Sailors who deploy to Souda Bay, said McFall.

Acosta added that the increase is a good deal for military members with families.

"It's good coverage, has a very small premium, and takes care of family members in case something was to ever happen to you," he said.

Lt. Cmdr. James Felty, officer-in-charge, PSD, Rota said, "For $20, you get $250,000. It's a 25 percent increase in your life insurance benefit. You have a small window of opportunity to file for less insurance. My personal opinion is if you have a family, or a loved one, keep in mind that $250,000 goes a long way in securing the future of your family should a tragedy occur."

Just one tick at a time

It has been said that we live in an age of anxiety today: an age of fear and concern and worry. I read something recently that said, "The word 'worry' means 'to tear apart.' Isn't that what we do when we worry: don't we tear ourselves apart?"

There are a lot of things in life we can worry about, aren't there? But have you noticed something? Have you noticed most of the things we worry about almost never materialize?

I love the old story about the newly made clock, just purchased from the clockmaker and set up on the mantle piece. It looked out upon its surroundings, and started to think about its future. It had just been wound up and had begun to tick for the very first time. Suddenly, the clock began to worry about all that would be expected of it. It began to fret about the terrifying challenge ahead. It realized it would have to tick every second. Why, that would mean 60 ticks every minute. Which would mean 3,600 ticks every hour or 86,000 every day. Suddenly, the little clock realized it would have to tick 31 million times each year, and in ten years, 300 million! The sheer prospect was overwhelming for that little clock. It passed out. It gave up. It stopped ticking!

How many of us have had times when we've been overwhelmed by all of the challenges we've had to face: work challenges, family challenges, financial challenges, health challenges. Sometimes we feel like that ticking clock; life looks overwhelming! How will we get through everything?

"Don't panic," says a little voice. "Just take life one step at a time." As someone has said, "By the yard, life is hard; by the inch it's a cinch." Say a prayer. Trust in God. And don't forget: you can make it — one tick at a time.

One hundred percent contact with Navy and Marine Corps personnel is the goal of the Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society fund drive.

"Our goal is not a monetary goal, but one hundred percent contact and education of what NMCRS does," said Lt.j.g. Cameron Nelson, chairperson of NMCRS 2001 Fund Drive. As of March 15, community participation reached approximately 74 percent.

"As of March 15, $28,342.95 has been raised," said Nelson. "Money raised from the fund drive goes directly back to Sailors and Marines in need," said Karen Melvin, Director, NMCRS, Rota.

There are still nine days left until the NMCRS fund drive is over. The Radiothon, on Rota's own Hot 102.5, which began Tuesday, Mar. 20, from 6 a.m. - 6 p.m., ends today. Other events include: numerous car washes and bake sales, including a carwash on Friday, Mar. 23, from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., at the PSD parking lot; and a Sony Playstation 2 raffle. Tickets for the Playstation 2 will be sold until Mar. 29, and there is no limit on the number of tickets one can buy. Tickets can be bought from your command chairperson. The raffle drawing will be held on Mar. 30 at 11 a.m., live on the radio. Naval Station's executive officer, Cmdr. John L. Buckles, will conduct the drawing. For more information, call Lt.j.g. Nelson at ext. 3600.

Happy spring! It's finally here - officially, by the calendar - and as I write this it really seems to have arrived. The sun is out and the weather is warm. It sure makes you want to get out and start doing things. Since I have family here, I naturally have as many short trips planned as I can handle, and trips are much more pleasant when the skies are sunny and the temperatures warm. Tuesday we are looking forward to a visit to the Cooperativa Virgen de los Remedios, in Olvera to see the making of olive oil and a couple of other sights. My other trips to Olvera have not coincided with the olive season so this will be new for me, too. We are planning to return via Ubrique for a bit of leather shopping if we don't get too tired or if it doesn't get too late. Now is a great time to head out on short trips before the height of the tourist season is upon us. If you are lucky enough to have family coming, showing them around is a great way for you to get to know the area better.

Gigantic satirical effigies are displayed throughout the streets during Fiesta Las Fallas.

Benidorm, Las Fallas

Story by YN2(SW) Mike Monroy

For the week of March 12 – 19, the entire province of Valencia celebrates the spectacular annual fiesta (festival), Las Fallas.

In this ancient fiesta, huge paper mache effigies of the famous and infamous are burned in the streets. These satirical figures are set on fire in a Spring ritual said to have originated when the city of Valencia's carpenters burned their wood shavings at the feast of San Jose (St. Joseph), their patron saint.

The creative fallas are paraded in the streets and judged in categories according to their budget. Prizes are awarded and the best creations are spared from the flames.

Along with the fallas, the cities of the Costa Blanca are filled with activities, musical bands, flower offerings and good food.

No one is spared during the fiesta.

The champion.

During summer

The province of Valencia is renown for paella.

Effigies from several centuries are employed in this extensive display adorning .

Safety at Gates

PRAYERS

Lord, thank you for another day within this life of mine. Give me the strength to live it well, whatever I may find. Bestow from Your abundance whatever I may lack. To use the hours wisely, for I cannot have them back. Lord, thank You for another day, in which to make amends for little slights or petty words, inflicted on my friends. For sometimes losing patience with problems that I find. For seeing faults in others' lives, but not the ones in mine. Lord, thank You for another chance, in which to try to be a little more deserving of the gifts You've given me. For yesterday is over, and tomorrow's far away, and I remain committed to the good I do today. Amen. Jess López.

Hudson's jersey retired at DGF

JO2 Ricky Allen
Rota Coastline

Kelsey Hudson, DGF senior basketball player, had her number 23 basketball jersey retired Mar. 9. This is the first athletic jersey ever to be retired at DGF High School. The 5'10", 150-pound player from San Diego said she was caught off-guard by the presentation.

"I was really surprised. I have never heard of this done in a high school before," Hudson said.

During her 2000-01 season, Hudson's offensive ability ranged from scoring 22.2 points per game to averaging seven assists. Her defensive attack brought her 9.3 rebounds per game and an average of 5.5 steals.

Hudson's achievements began in 1999, when she received numerous awards, including the 1999 All-tournament selection DoDDS European Tournament, and being named one of the top 20 players in the 1999 All-Europe Basketball First Team. She was also named DGF's Most Valuable Player for 1999.

For Hudson, playing with the DGF Girl's basketball team has been interesting because the head coach is Kenneth Hudson, her father. "He keeps me on my toes with how to play the game," Kelsey said.

"Kelsey's style of play is best described as smooth. She has quick hands and a great court sense. Kelsey is a fiery competitor," said Coach Hudson.

The 2000 season proved to be a prosperous year for the DGF Senior, with

2000 DoDDS District III North Tournament MVP
2001 District III North Tournament Selection

Hudson once again making the All Tournament Selection, All Europe Basketball First Team, and earning her second consecutive DGF MVP award. Hudson has maintained a humble demeanor about the whole event. "It's not a big deal," she said. "But then again, maybe it just hasn't hit me yet," she said.

For Hudson, having her number retired was an achievement many do not receive in their high school year. Many who have known Hudson throughout her high school years said that her basketball skills were "poetry in motion." However, Hudson takes no credit for herself. She said her team is what made her the best.
